

Celebrate High Holy Days Moments Together!

As we look towards the future, Temple Beth El and Temple Beth Or are combining our celebrations of parts of the High Holy Days this year.

There are two exciting times when we will be together!

SELICHOT

Saturday night, September 1, 7pm, at Temple Beth Or Selichot is time to get yourself ready for the High Holy Days. We'll watch a movie with High Holy Day themes, enjoy delicious desserts, and change the Torah mantles to their holiday colors during a beautiful late-night service. Watch for more details about this wonderful night of reflection, discussion, and preparation.

2nd DAY ROSH HASHANNAH MORNING SERVICE

Tuesday, September 11, 10:30am, at Temple Beth El

The 2nd Day Rosh HaShannah morning service is a meaningful way to continue our New Year's celebration. This service will include group aliyot (Torah blessings) for everyone who, in the past year, has:

- ✧ Become a Bar/Bat Mitzvah or a Confirmand
- ✧ Celebrated a milestone birthday or anniversary
- ✧ Sought a healing blessing for a loved one
- ✧ Passed through a serious life challenge or illness
- ✧ Travelled to Israel
- ✧ Joined Temple Beth El or Temple Beth Or, got married, had a child or grandchild, or became a Jew-by-choice
- ✧ Participated in a Jewish high school program, youth group, or were an aide in our religious education programs

No RSVP necessary. Just come up when your "group" is called.

We can't wait to celebrate the High Holy Day Season
together with YOU!
